Decimal Builds Partner Eco System with CLEAR Planning Solutions

Decimal selected as core platform for outsourced paraplanning solutions

Data migration solution for Decimal clients

Decimal Software Limited (“DSX”) is pleased to announce that it has been selected by CLEAR Planning Solutions (CPlan) as technology partner for its outsourced paraplanning and support solutions. CPlan will also provide data migration services for Decimal customers requiring support in transitioning from legacy software.

CPlan assists Australian dealer groups and individual AFSL holders to deliver high quality financial advice through outsourced paraplanning and support solutions. CPlan brings together expertise in recruiting and managing outsourced workforces with best practice systems and process development to assist advisors to deliver high quality financial advice.

CPlan Director Christian Singleton said CPlan believed that Decimal’s platform represents a transformation in best practice for financial advice. “We are partnering with Decimal to ensure that CPlan’s adviser clients can access both the best paraplanning support coupled with the best operating systems,” Mr. Singleton said.

Decimal Executive Chairman, Michael Sertorio welcomed CPlan as a Decimal partner. “Building the eco-system of quality service providers using our platform to collaborate with their clients in real time is a key feature of the new way of doing business that Decimal enables.”
